

Address of welcome

The 3rd International Congress of Chinese Nephrologists (ICCN) will be held on December 5 - 8, 2019, in Nanjing, China. On behalf of the organizing committee of the conference, we sincerely welcome experts and related practitioners from the global Chinese nephrology community to attend the conference.

The International Association of Chinese Nephrologists (IACN) aims to bring together the strengths of the global Chinese nephrology community, strengthen academic exchanges, improve clinical service capabilities, and jointly address major scientific problems in human health and problems in the diagnosis and treatment of kidney diseases. We will benefit the patients, contribute to healthy China, and promote the development of the global nephrology business through our efforts.

The ICCN has been widely recognized and strongly supported by the global Chinese nephrology colleagues, and also has received support and assistance from the host governments and academic organizations. The 3rd ICCN will be held in conjunction with the Annual Meeting of the Nephrology Branch of the Jiangsu Medical Association. Here, we would like to express our gratitude to the Chinese Society of Nephrology (CSN), the Jiangsu Medical Association and the Nephrology Branch of the Jiangsu Medical Association for their support. We will look forward to meeting you in Nanjing with our colleagues in Jiangsu Province.
